

Al Kamandjâti
Music school in Palestine

This association was founded in October 2002 on the initiative of Ramzi Aburedwan, graduated from the Conservatoire National de Région d'Angers, from the refugee camp of Al Amari near Ramallah.

The goal is to open Al Kamandjâti music classes for children poorest Palestinians.

The association has opened a music school in Ramallah in October 2005. Today she teaches music to over 450 students in Palestine: Ramallah, Qalandiah Al Amari, Jalazon, Qaddura, Deir Ghassan, Jenin and Tulkarem. Since 2008 she has also started courses in Lebanon, where it now has 60 students in the camps of Burj al Barajneh and Shatila.

Since its inception, Al Kamandjâti took an important place in the local cultural landscape with a certain dynamism: the organization of workshops, master classes, concerts and festivals, as well as the development of violin making.

Children are the first victims of the violence of occupation. The main goal of Al Kamandjâti is to rebuild an environment where play and education are major concerns of these children. Learning the music allows them to rediscover their cultural identity, but also to explore areas in which their creative potential can develop.

Chance enjoyed Ramzi Aburedwan must not remain isolated.

To carry out these projects we need other assistance: they can be material (in joining the association, giving musical instruments ...) and / or human (by providing their ideas, skills ...).
